

Summary of AG-018-032 Yugoslavia Mission

Title

Yugoslavia Mission

Active Dates

1943-1949

Administrative History

The UNRRA Procurement and Recruiting Office in India was established in New Delhi in December 1945. The title of the office is descriptive of its functions, which were: (1) to procure relief goods against Indian contribution of Rs. 80,000,000 ($24,042,072) to the UNRRA. fund, and (2) to recruit Indian personnel for service with UNRRA. in all theatres of operation. It had been given another responsibility, namely, establishment of liaison with the civil and military authorities in Burma and the Federated Malay States for handling any relief operations which might be undertaken there, but no call in this direction was made on this office. Administratively it was responsible to the Office of Far Eastern Affairs, UNRRA Headquarters, Washington.

The New Delhi office was only procurement and recruiting agency as no relief operation in India itself was undertaken by UNRRA. In the matter of procurement, too, the UNRRA office had no direct dealings in the open market, since the procedure agreed upon between Sayre and the Indian Government required that UNRRA should furnish the Commerce Department of the Government of India with firm requests following which the latter would place contracts with suppliers in collaboration with appropriate governmental procurement agencies. In the matter of recruitment, the New Delhi Office acted as the liaison agency for the Bureau of Personnel at Headquarters.

The New Delhi Office had a very small establishment of a dozen people or so under a Director, and its records were kept as a central file with simple subject classification.
